

BUSINESS HAS BEEN "SPOTTED"

A Falling Off in Its Volume.

Transactions of Importance Postponed Until After Election.

Real Estate Market Feels the Effect of Politics Most Keenly— Local Stocks.

"Spotted" is about the only term which would seem to adequately describe the local business situation during the last week before election. There was without doubt a falling off in volume from the showing of the several preceding weeks, but the trade in staple lines was not far from normal. Jobbers report comparatively little effect of campaign activity upon the country trade, which is unusually large.

Election an Excuse.

The unusual feature of the situation is found in the fact that while some in all lines report business very quiet, others in the same lines have found business strong. The tendency to postpone business transactions of importance until after election has been very noticeable, and the election has also been used as an excuse for drawing in outstanding funds, where creditors have felt "shaky." In spite of this, however, collections are at least normally good, and money for legitimate purposes is more easily obtained than for a long time before.

Real Estate Quiet.

While the real estate business has probably felt more than any other the quieting results of campaign work, there have been consummated during the week several very good deals in business property, and some of the leading dealers assert that they have not seen in years so strong a demand for gilt-edged property as that which exists in the city at this time.

Commercial Stocks.

Local commercial stocks were very quiet during the week, the demand having been light and the offerings few. The only transactions were in sugars, and in these were no features. The latest quotations:

Ogden Water Users Interested.

State Engineer Doremus and Attorney F. E. Richards yesterday attended, as representatives of the Arid Land Reclamation Fund commission, a meeting of water-users held at Ogden. They found the same lively interest among the farmers of that section in the organization of the Water-Users' association for the great Government irrigation project that has been exhibited in the several other localities in which meetings have been held, and the promise was made that the work of securing signers to the articles of incorporation would be carried forward as rapidly as possible.

CALIFORNIA FOR HEALTH.

Mild Climate, Rare Medical Springs and Charming Scenery.

There are many conditions of the body in which a change of environment is far more valuable as a remedial agent than all the medicine that can be prescribed.

California peculiarly fitted to give all that nature can give in this direction. To the newcomer the environment is so strange and so striking that it claims the undivided attention. Everywhere and all the time there is something strange and interesting to see.

Of climatic conditions the invalid has a wide range from which to choose. In elevation from about 300 feet below sea level to 9,000 feet above; in humidity from the moist sea-breezes of the coast to the dry, invigorating air of the inland mountain ranges; in temperature, from the almost perpetual summer of the southern part of the state to the more severe, though not unpleasant climate of the upper Sierras.

In addition to all this, there are numerous mineral springs, many of them having marked medicinal qualities, which have already won for them a wide reputation. At some of these sanitariums have been erected, and all the conveniences of modern civilization are at hand.

There, too, one can enjoy a more healthful and varied diet than is accessible in any other locality. Fresh fruits and vegetables the year round; an abundance of wild game and meats that are nutritious and highly-flavored.

A climate where even a delicate person can, with no fear of taking cold, spend ten or twelve months in the open air, needs few accessories in the work of restoring impaired health or vitality.

Great numbers of semi-invalids already go to California to escape the cold of the Eastern winters, and find to their constant surprise that a greater part of a California winter is almost an exact counterpart of the balmy days of an Eastern spring.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 5.—The Chinese Government has instructed the Chinese Minister to Great Britain, Mr. Chang Ta Yen, to urge upon the British Government the desirability of naming immediately a meeting place for a commission representing both countries to consider the Anglo-Thibetan treaty signed at L'Hassa early last September.

PERMANENCE OF CURE.

The Chief Merit.

Many so-called pile remedies will afford the user slight temporary relief, and the majority of sufferers do not expect more than this. Women especially, after having tried every preparation recommended for the cure of Piles, have come to the conclusion that there is no cure except by an operation. This is rightly viewed with dread, because of the shock to the delicate nervous system of women, and many of those afflicted, have resigned themselves to the situation with never a thought that there is any help in sight for them.

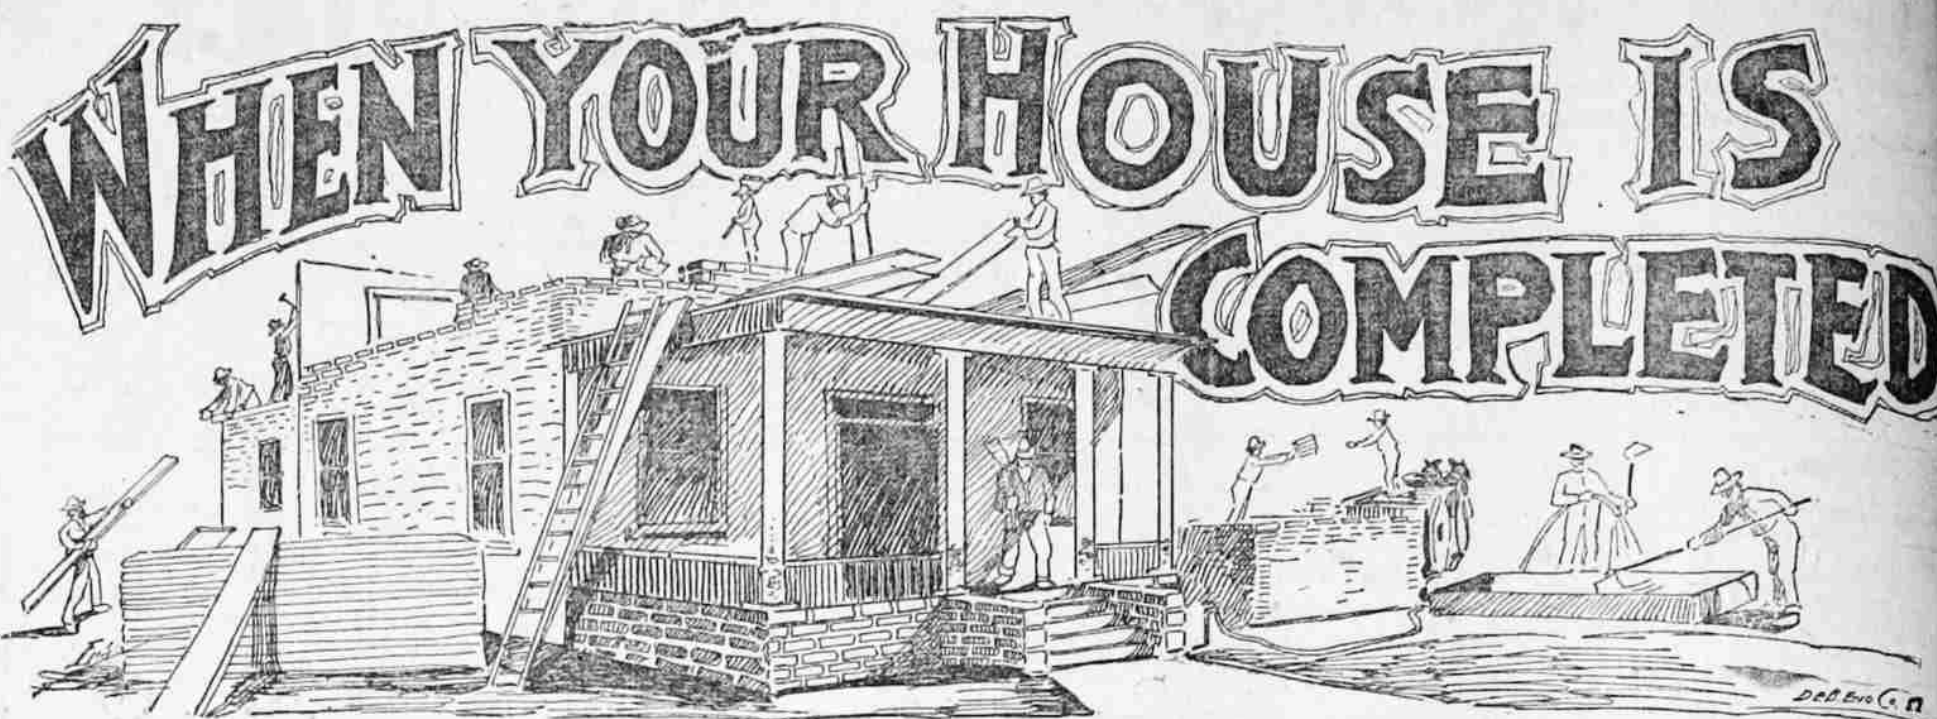

We invite the attention of all such to the experience of the lady whose address is given below.

"I feel it my duty to recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure, for after suffering ten years with a most distressing form of Piles, I am entirely cured, thanks to this remedy. Any one doubting this can write to Margaret Brady, 156 Whitman St., Cleveland, Ohio."

Ten months later she writes: "I am glad to say that I am still perfectly free from Piles, and have not had the slightest trouble since I first used your remedy. I am well known in Cleveland and have advertised Pyramid Pile Cure extensively here. I take pleasure in doing so as it saved me from an operation, which I always dread, and you are assured the remedy can have no firmer advocate than I."

Testimony like this should convince the most skeptical, that Pyramid Pile Cure not only cures, but cures to stay cured. It is in the form of a suppository, can be applied in the privacy of the home, directly to the parts affected, and does its work quickly and painlessly.

Druggists sell this famous remedy for fifty cents a package, and we urge all sufferers to buy a package now and give it a trial tonight. Accept no Substitutes. Write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their little book on the cause and cure of Piles, which is sent free for the asking.
